WATER AND WINE

Multi-instrumentalist and vocalist Dan Prindle started his successful musical career with the New England jam-band juggernaut Rane, a band who recently celebrated the 20th anniversary of their formation with a sold-out show at Northampton's Iron Horse Music Hall. The two intervening decades have been filled with musical accomplishments including the release of Dan's first full-length solo album, Where You Land, in 2013 and now a highly anticipated new EP called Water and Wine, due out March 25th, 2017. Recorded almost entirely in his own brand-new studio, Six String Orchestra Productions, the EP features Prindle's most elaborate productions to date. It draws on diverse influences: the accessible singing of Ben Folds, the rich backing harmonies of the Eagles, the moog synth sounds of Percy Hill, and the jazzy guitar inflections of Steely Dan. The EP title track tells a story of loss that gives way to hope and redemption as Prindle chronicles the trials of bringing a family into a changing world.

- Named Best Bass Player by the Hartford Advocate in 2004 and 2006.
- Performed as sideman for major label recording artists Simon Kirke (of Free, Bad Company, and Ringo Starr's All-Star Band), Kurtis John (of The Last Goodnight), and Rex Fowler (of Aztec Two-Step).
- Recorded as sideman for Frank Black (of the Pixies) and Mark Mulcahy, whose 2005 release, In Pursuit of Your Happiness, which features Dan on cello, was called the album of the year by Radiohead's Thom Yorke.
- With Rane, achieved multiple sellouts at the House of Blues (Boston), Iron Horse Music Hall (Northampton, MA) and Cheney Hall (Manchester, CT), won the Hartford Advocate's Grand Band Slam for nine consecutive years, and released Camelopardalis which broke into Sound Scan's Top 50 listing for the Hartford / New Britain market and its Top 100 listing for the Springfield market.
