

Only Rane we welcome

We like the band Rane because it is truly independent — it started its own label, Tides Records, to protect its indie identity. We like the band Rane because it has opened for other acts we like, including Wilco, Santana, and Jump Little Children. And we like Rane because it dabbles in an array of genres, from pop to folk, comparing itself to Peter Dinklage, Steely Dan, and Super Furry Animals. Tonight, you can decide why you like Rane when the Connecticut band plays the Paradise Lounge at 8 with the Fair Enough and the Brew. Tickets: $7. Paradise Lounge, 969 Commonwealth Ave., 617-562-8800. www.thedise.com
